GV YOUNG PROFESSIONALS

Annexure to Model Rules GV Young Professionals Special Rules

PREAMBLE

- A. The hereinafter described amendments (“the Special Rules”) to the Model Rules published by Consumer Affairs Victoria (“the Model Rules”) have been designed to reflect the following circumstances:
1. The Association currently has a small amount of financial resources and no substantial financial commitments;
 2. The membership fee paid by members is, at the date of incorporation, a nominal amount of $5.00. There are otherwise no financial obligations on members to the Association;
 3. The Association has no substantial obligations. The organisation’s principal business at the date of incorporation is putting on recreational events. For example, it is not a relied upon service provider for those in need.
 4. The Model Rules place administrative burdens on an association’s committee as systemic protections for an association’s members, which are particularly relevant the greater the responsibilities an association undertakes. The priority for the Association is for its committee to get on with its business of providing recreational activities for its members.
- B. The members have determined that they will place their trust in the Committee and, in particular, the Executive Committee to act efficiently and fairly by giving them discretionary powers in place of some of the procedural protections ordinarily found in the Model Rules. In the event that such discretionary powers entrusted to the Committee and Executive Committee are exercised by them, they will be required to report to the next annual general meeting of the members that such powers were exercised. The protection of the rights and agenda of the members will be protected by the inherent accountability that arises from the Committee and Executive Committee being required to so report at the same time that they would need to seek re-election if they wish to continue in their roles.
- C. The circumstances set-out in this preamble may change and, accordingly, a review mechanism has been placed in these Special Rules
- D. This preamble is to provide context only and is not to be construed as having operative effect.

SPECIAL RULES

1. Review and Sunset of Special Rules

- 2.1 These Special Rules shall be reviewed on the third annual general meeting following the end of its first financial year that it is incorporated. Such review shall be included on the notice to the members of the annual general meeting. This review process shall be repeated every three years at the annual general meeting; and
- 2.2. Members present at such an annual general meeting must vote by special resolution as to whether or not they wish to keep all or some of the Special Rules. In the event the members do not vote to keep all or part of the Special Rules, the Special Rules not to voted to be kept shall immediately cease to apply and the corresponding provision (if any) of the Model Rules shall apply.

2. Clause 4 of the Rules shall be amended to include the following definitions:

The Committee shall only be obliged to disclose at the Annual General Meeting that such a decision was made and, if requested at the meeting, whom it was made in relation to. The Committee members shall not be obliged to provide reasons for their decision.

. Note

5. Clause 11 of the Model Rules is deleted and clause 10 of the Model Rules is replaced with:

10 Consideration of new membership

- (1) The Committee has thirty (30) days after the date a person becomes a new member under Clause 9.1 of the Rules to deny that person's membership (such person hereinafter described as a "Denied Applicant").
- (2) The Committee must notify the Denied Applicant in writing of its decision as soon as practicable after the decision is made.
- (3) If the Committee rejects the application, it must return any money accompanying the application to the Denied Applicant. The Committee may return the money by providing notice to the Denied Applicant of an appropriate location within the Goulburn Valley that is accessible during business hours where the denied applicant can collect his or her refunded money. In the event that the Denied Applicant fails to collect the money within seven (7) days of being provided the said notice, the money shall be forfeited by the applicant to the Association.
- (4) No reasons need to be given for the rejection of a person's membership.
- (5) Notwithstanding Sub-Clause 9(1)(c) of the Rules, in the event the Committee denies a person's membership, the Denied Applicant will be deemed never to have become a member (as far as the law shall permit) and their details will be removed from the register of members as soon as practicable after the decision is made.
